

General Assembly

Distr.: Limited
27 November 2001

Original: English

Fifty-sixth session Second Committee

Agenda item 95 (b)

Macroeconomic policy questions: international financial system and development

Islamic Republic of Iran:* draft resolution

Towards a strengthened and stable international financial architecture responsive to the priorities of growth and development, especially in developing countries, and to the promotion of economic and social equity

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 55/186 of 20 December 2000, entitled “Towards a strengthened and stable international financial architecture responsive to the priorities of growth and development, especially in developing countries, and to the promotion of economic and social equity”,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General entitled “International financial architecture and development, including net transfer of resources between developed and developing countries”;¹
2. Takes note also of the deliberations of the Preparatory Committee for the International Conference on Financing for Development, to be held in Monterrey, Mexico, from 18 to 22 March 2002;
3. Stresses the importance of annual consideration of the sub-item on the international financial system and development, including net transfer of resources between developed and developing countries, under the agenda item entitled “Macroeconomic policy questions”;
4. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-seventh session a report on the reform of the international financial architecture, coherence in the international monetary, financial and trading systems and net financial flows to developing countries;

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China.

¹ A/56/173 and Add.1-2.

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its fifty-seventh session, under the item entitled “Macroeconomic policy questions”, the sub-item entitled “International financial system and development”.
