“OIC-LDC Youth Entrepreneurship Development- Educational Seminar and Training (YED) Program”

Descriptive Report

OIC-LDC Youth Entrepreneurship Development- Educational Seminar and Training (YED) Program was the initiative of the Islamic Conference youth Forum for Dialogue and Cooperation (ICYF-DC) in the framework of its Programme namely Islamic Countries Young Entrepreneurship Network (ICYEN). The scope of the program included young entrepreneurs and youth entrepreneurship associations of least developed countries (LDCs – including but not limited to the OIC Member States) in Africa and Asia regions to raise the awareness and to provide entrepreneur activities, education and sustainable financing towards different projects on the topics of trade, technology, food and agriculture, energy, raw materials, finance, industrialization and technical cooperation. The aim of the project was to strengthen the capacity of national associations to prepare sustainable “projects for development” and empowerment their members.

YED was held on 9-11 October, 2014 in Istanbul, Turkey (Venues: ICYF-DC Headquarters and WoW Hotel), with the participation of more than 40 participants. These participants comprised of two representatives – young entrepreneurs from each of the below mentioned 10 selected countries: Cameroon, Djibouti, Indonesia, Maldives, Palestine, Pakistan, Sierra Leone,

Sudan, Thailand, Uganda (in total: 20 participants) as well as 28 participants from other Member states of G77

It included 3 days training to provide educational and professional experience tools and coordination mechanism.

YED was implemented in 3 main stages: In the first stage of the project, participants were responsible to do research on one of the topics of trade, technology, food and agriculture, energy, raw materials, finance, industrialization and technical cooperation and submitted their entrepreneurship project proposals.

In the second stage, 3 days of LED conference was held comprising of lectures and workshops which supported the young entrepreneurs with the necessary education, professional experience and coordination between young entrepreneurs from Asia and Africa.

3 days of lectures and workshops analysed the situation in selected 10 countries and the challenges that youth in these regions face. Lack of education which is important in national development and lack of work places were among the challenges faced by youth entrepreneurs. Discussions and methodologies to overcome these challenges were presented during the workshops.

The Seminar continued with the presentation of participants' project proposals and interactive discussion session. In the third stage, 3 months of follow up process of the participants' projects in their initial phase was performed. During this stage, ICYEN assisted and mentored the participants during the implementation of their projects for the feasibility of the study and business plan performance.

“OIC-LDC Youth Entrepreneurship Development” Educational and Training (YED) Seminar was completed with success while it strengthen the capacity in the national associations to prepare sustainable programmes and projects for the development and empowerment of young entrepreneurs in the respective countries as well as improved awareness on entrepreneurship by lectures and workshops, improved the feasibility study and business planning skills of the participants.
